MATTHEW 5:8

Praying with This Sunday's Gospel

On All Saints, the Church gives us the Beatitudes. Jesus goes up a mountain, sits down, and tells a crowd who is blessed: the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the meek, the merciful, the peacemakers. It is not a list of people who have it all together. It is a list of people who are leaning on God.

The first reading gives us a glimpse of where that leads: a great multitude from every nation, standing before the throne. Saints are not a special class far from us. They are neighbors who prayed, forgave, showed up, and kept trusting God through hard days, in places like Cle Elum and Roslyn as much as anywhere. Today we remember the saints we know by name and the many we do not. This week, think of one person whose faith helped shape yours. Thank God for them by name, and tell someone who knew them.

> Whose faith has shaped mine, and how can I thank God for them this week?

ALL MASSES AT ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

All Masses are being celebrated at St. John the Baptist in Cle Elum until the heating and HVAC work at Immaculate Conception in Roslyn is funded and completed. The cold inside Immaculate Conception could pose a health risk, so we are taking this precaution for everyone's well-being. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

ONE THING THIS WEEK

Help replace the Immaculate Conception HVAC system before winter. Scan to give and select New HVAC System.

Encounter This Sunday

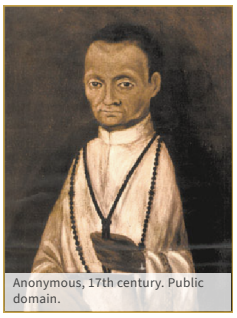

FIRST READING	Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14	PSALM	Psalm 24:1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6
SECOND READING	1 John 3:1-3	GOSPEL	Matthew 5:1-12a

> Jesus goes up the mountain, sits down, and begins to teach. Listen for who he calls blessed, and notice how different it sounds from what the world calls a good life.

Ask yourself: which of the Beatitudes is hardest for me to believe?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Martin de Porres

Martin de Porres was born in Lima, Peru, in 1579, the son of a freed woman from Panama and a Spanish nobleman who never married her. He grew up poor. At twelve he was apprenticed to a barber-surgeon, where he learned to cut hair, care for wounds, and prepare medicines.

Martin joined the Dominicans as a lay helper, and after nine years the community asked him to make full religious profession. He nursed the sick, cared for the poor, helped found an orphanage, and looked after enslaved Africans. His life shows that holiness grows in ordinary service to the person in front of us.

FEAST: NOVEMBER 3 · DOMINICAN (1579-1639) · PATRON OF SOCIAL JUSTICE

FOR LITTLE ONES Martin cared for sick people and animals. Do one kind thing for someone who is sick or sad this week.

Children's Corner

FOR OUR YOUNGEST DISCIPLES

Jesus sat on a mountain and taught a big crowd. He said God's blessing is for people who are gentle, who make peace, and whose hearts are clean.

Saints are people who lived that way. Martin de Porres, on this page, took care of sick people and poor people. He was a saint because he loved others in everyday ways.

Today we thank God for every saint in heaven, the famous ones and the ones nobody knew.

DRAW SOMEONE YOU KNOW WHO IS KIND LIKE A SAINT. THEN SAY THANK YOU TO GOD FOR THEM.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL 2025-26 · AS OF OCTOBER 25

What is the Annual Catholic Appeal? Every year the Diocese of Yakima invites each household to renew its commitment to ministries no single parish can carry alone. Your gift helps form priests, deacons, teachers and catechists, supports the faith formation of our young people, and keeps the Church present in every corner of Central Washington. Our parishes receive back what we raise beyond our goal. Every household that gives, at any amount, shares in this work. Please pray about your gift this year and give or pledge below.
